

This is protection for the people.

LawGuard started with the simple belief that people should have the power of choice and the right to fight back. In fact, this is the only legal insurance that was specifically designed to let you choose any attorney you want. You know what's right for you and your family, so we don't want to cut down your options to two or three names.

We just want to make sure you can afford legal assistance whenever or wherever you need it. Even if something goes to trial – when every hour costs hundreds of dollars – we'll still be there to send a check for attorney fees before the legal system can empty your bank account.

Because nobody should go broke from paying legal fees.

Here to help!

Insurance can be complicated, so we'll be here to answer any questions and guide you through the process.
